

The war aims of a Greater Germanic Reich

	Greater Germany
	Areas that will be greatly assimilated into the Greater Germanic Reich Areas that will be slower assimilated into the Greater Germanic Reich Living space in East Satellite countries
	Areas dependent on the Greater Germanic Reich Areas of ethnic cleansing involving deportation of local gentile population and immigration of Germans called n race

mans.
: told
I spe-
itism,
: have nt on
: have tizens
s soliment
sites, uita a 100
n was mon-
urch,
Jews
, the
romi-
gov-
was n this ident
with at he amrotest
nt of Italy
ser, a alian
orted
inter-

I. POLAND, 1940

Europe January 1941

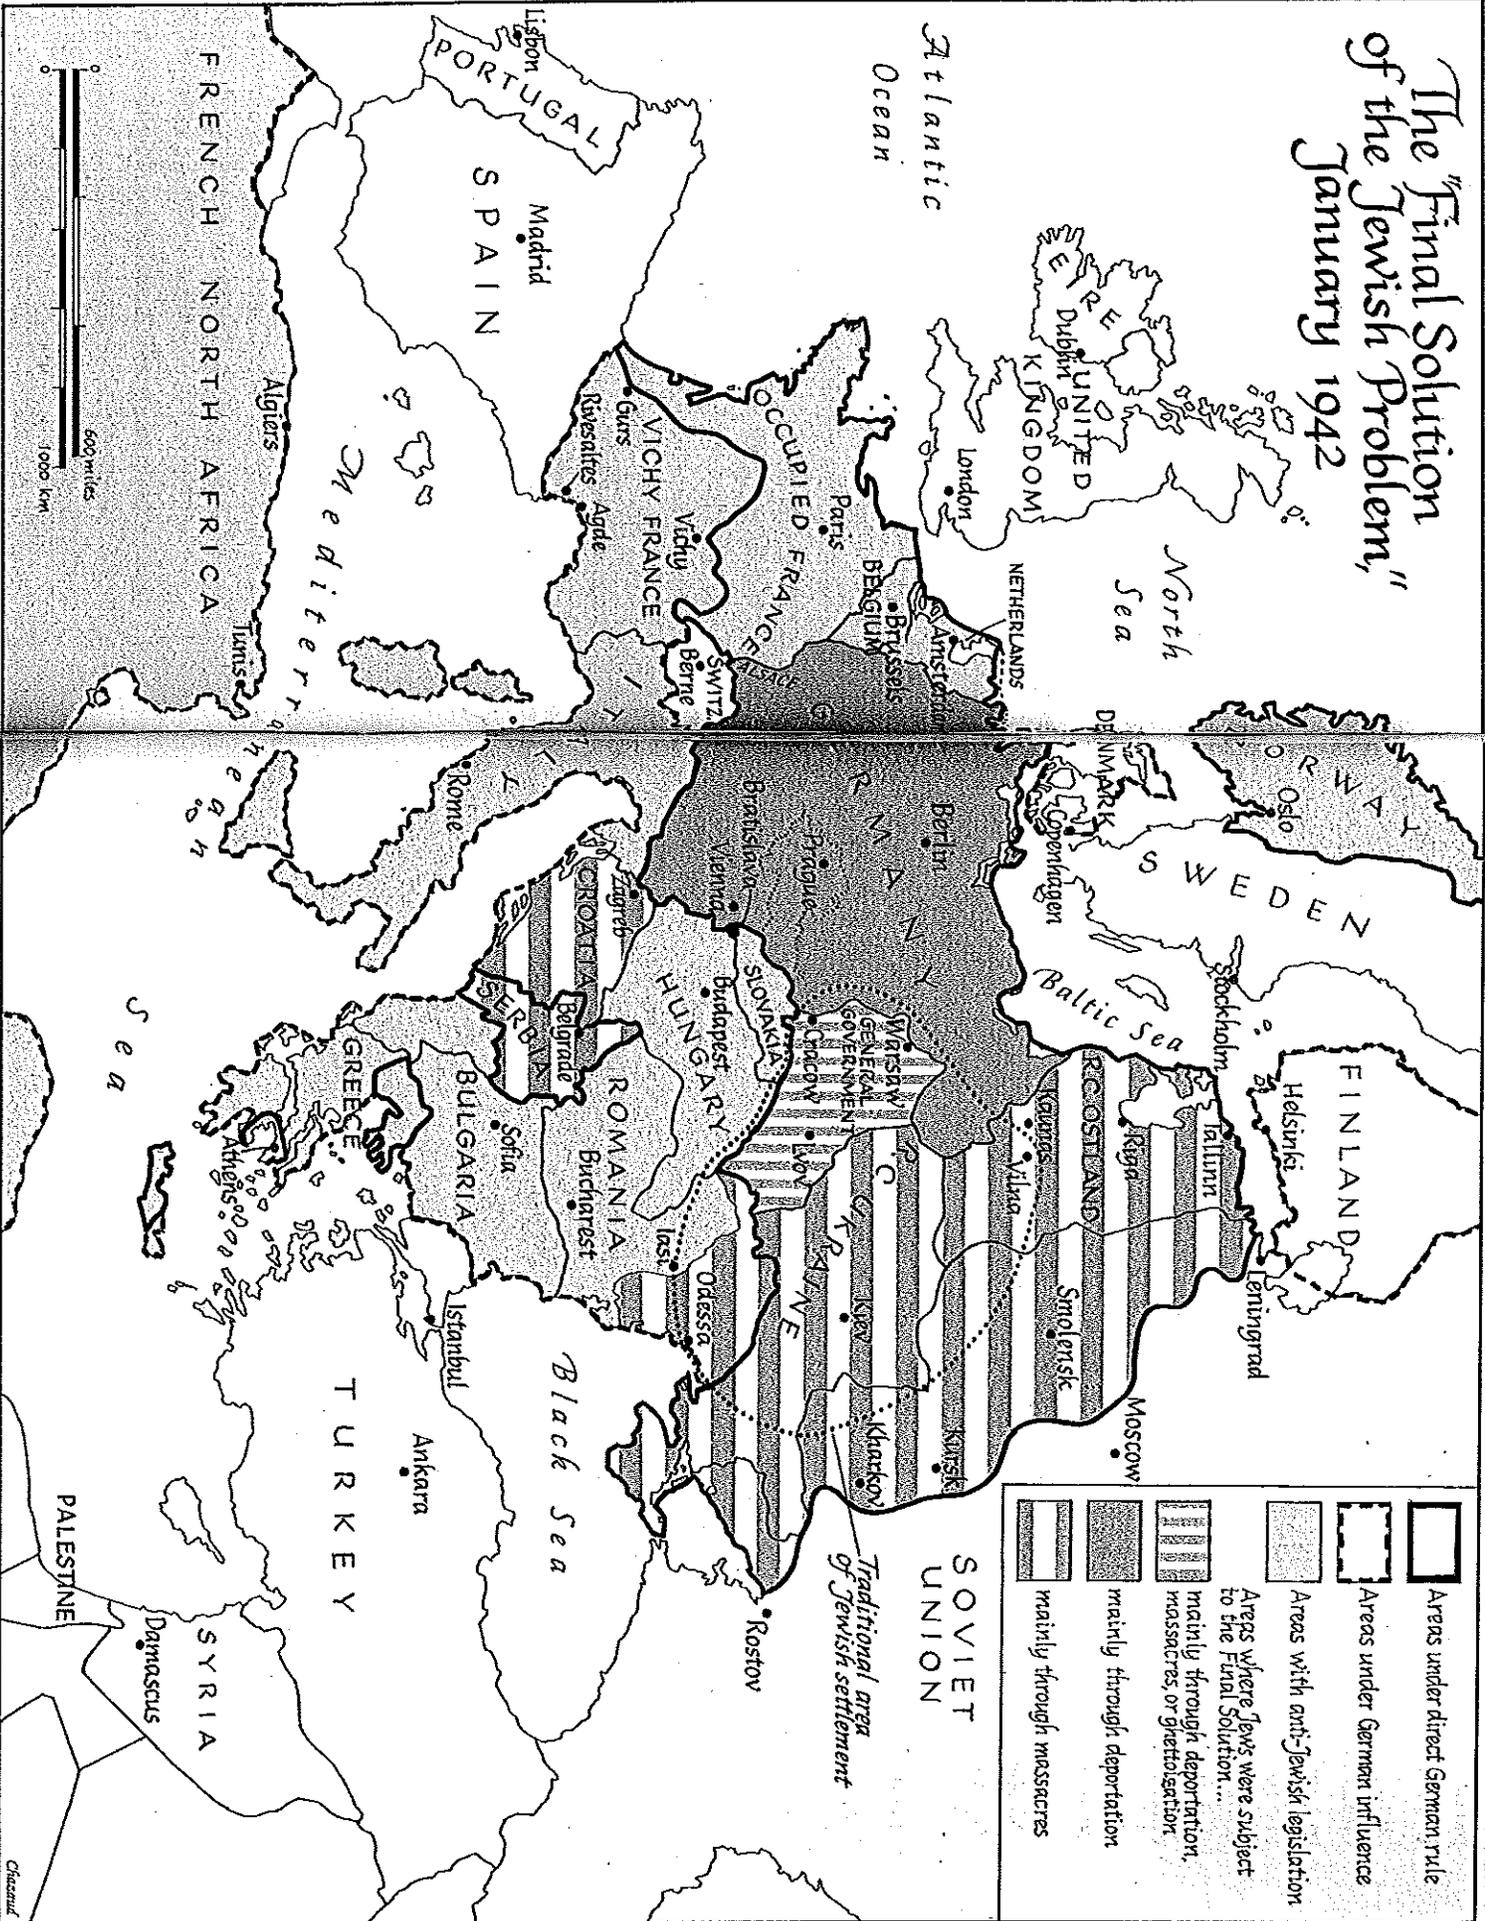

ras-ol- to my to ed nt-le- th of he als n- an- a- re- e- n- n- a- nt of ve- an- id- ed- all- n- a- la- hy- ist- ip- ay ad

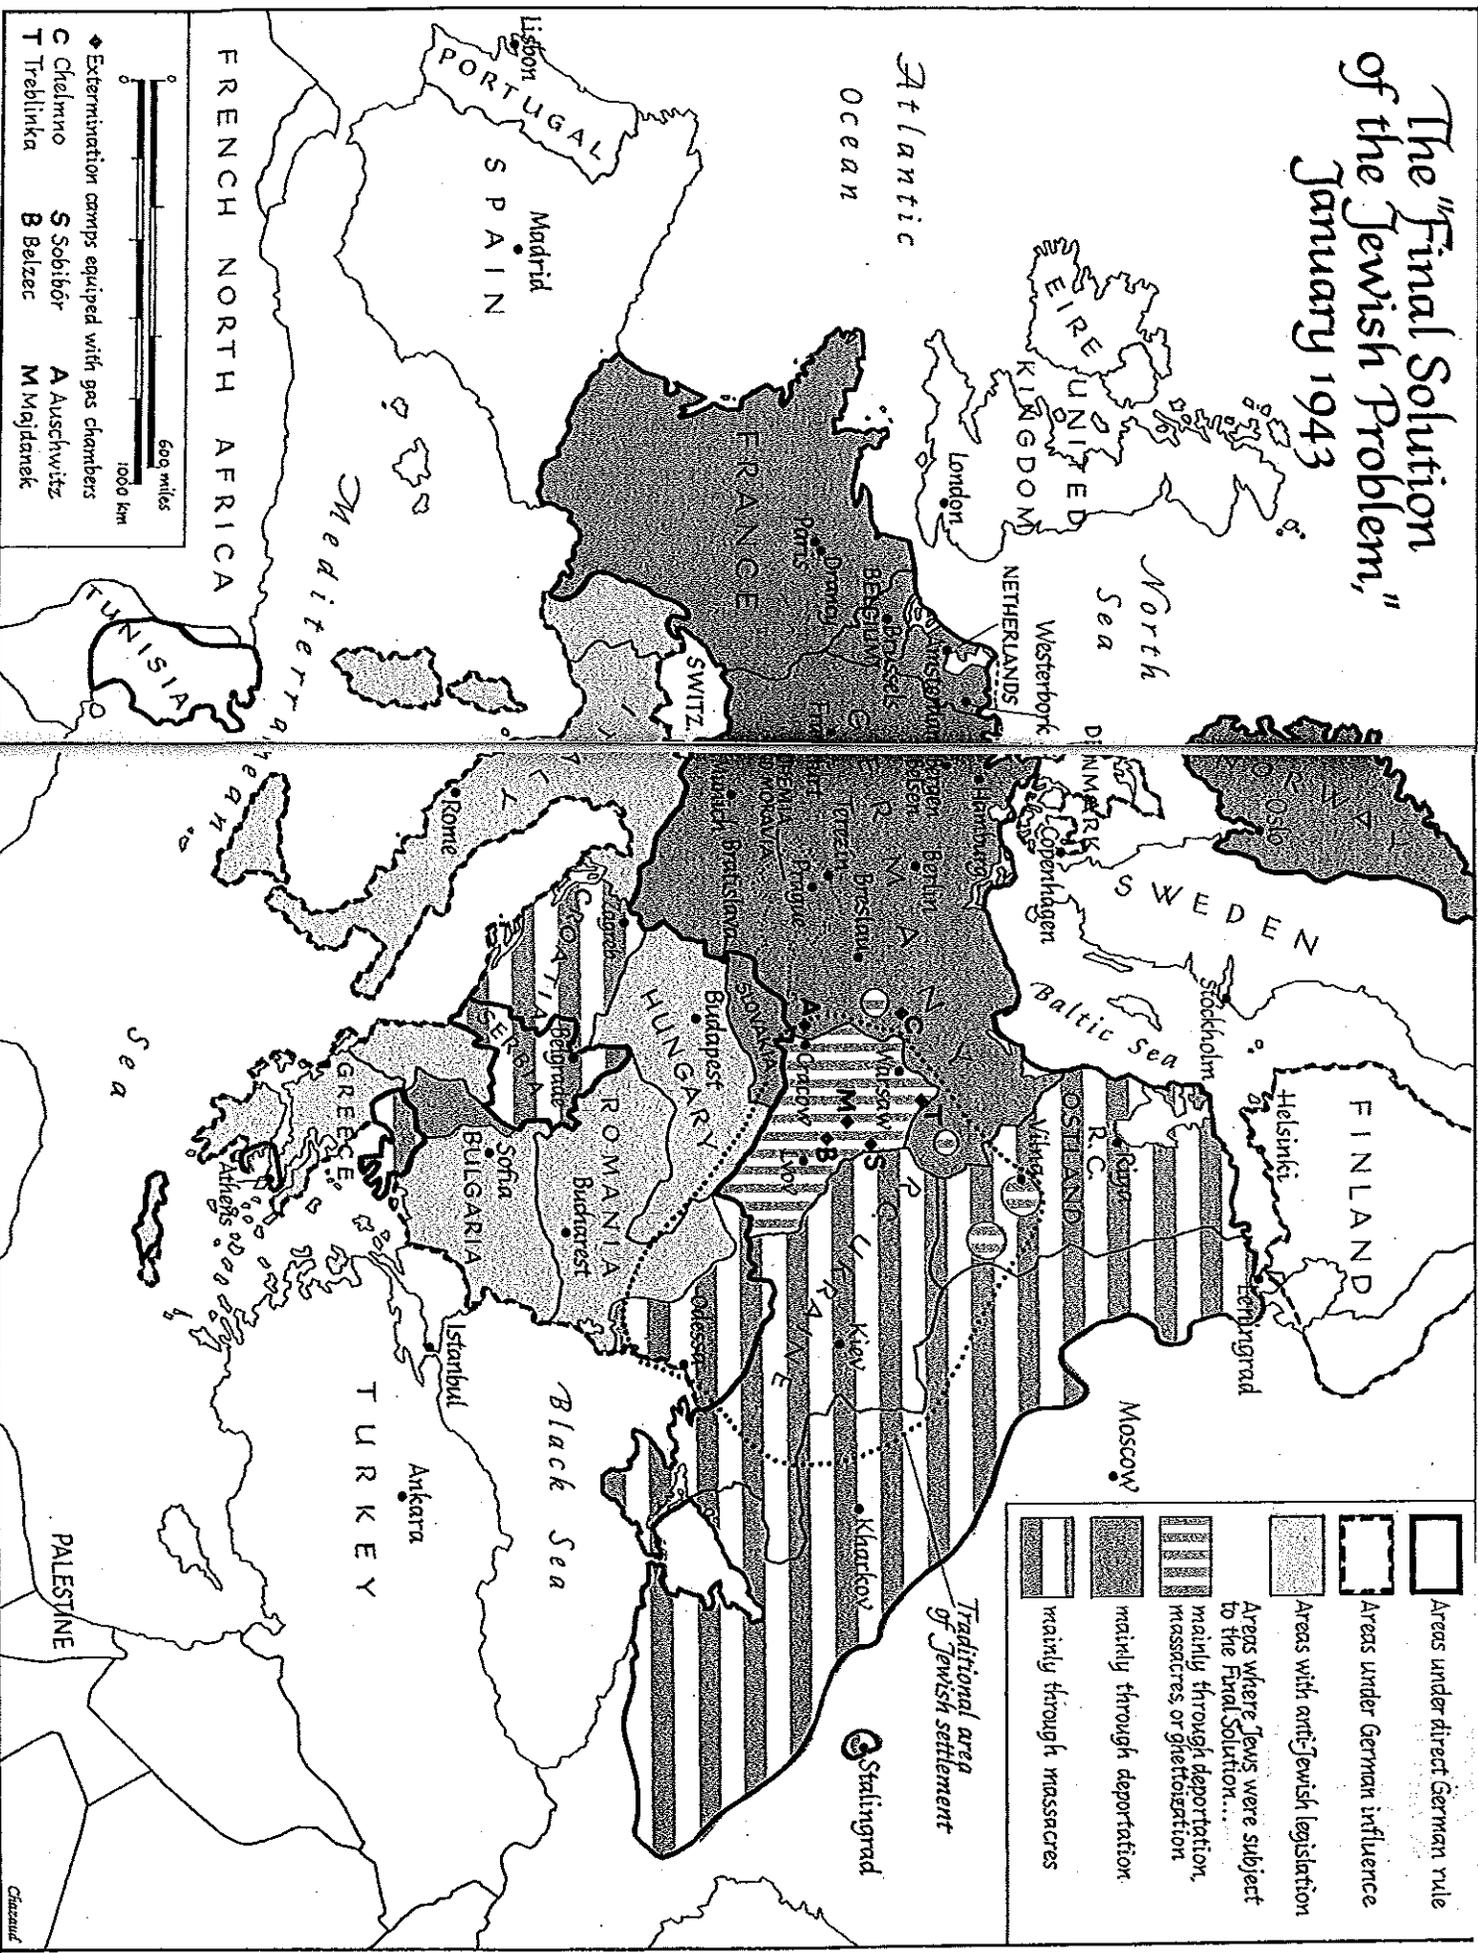

3. OCCUPIED SOVIET TERRITORY, DECEMBER 1941

The "Final Solution" of the Jewish Problem, January 1942

trust. He allow acow, dom, nsece, close, quest begin le in ment. ught, roxi- here are t the dot o,000 Sinti of the land istry ough- 1943. ened, e Oc- 1943 a and pular- Gyp- hinge of the id are ation

The "Final Solution" of the Jewish Problem, January 1943

- Areas under direct German rule
- Areas under German influence
- Areas with anti-Jewish legislation
- Areas where Jews were subject to the Final Solution...
- mainly through deportation, massacres, or ghettoization
- mainly through deportation
- mainly through massacres

◆ Extermination camps equipped with gas chambers
 C Chelmo S Sobibor A Auschwitz
 T Treblinka B Belzec M Majdanek

600 miles
 1000 km

Europe January 1943

